Disks need to be received by Monday, July 14.
E-mails may be sent to above address by July 14..

League Qualifications: Swimmers must be on their team’s roster that was submitted to the league and swum in at least 3 dual meets. A swimmer may be listed in 3 events. If a swimmer swims 3 individual events at Divisionals, they may not be an alternate in a relay at the All-Star meet. Being listed as an alternate in a relay at the Divisional meet does NOT count as another event. Swimmers must swim their age group as of 6/1/03 at the Divisional meet with the exception of relays, where they may move up to two age groups.

Admission: Admission to the meet is $1.00 for adults (volunteers receive free entry.)

Programs will be available for $3.00.

Volunteers: Timers and officials are asked to work Shift 1 (Events 1-18), Shift 2 (Events 19-38), or Shift 3 (Events 39-76). Every team is requested to provide a minimum of 1 ribbon person, 9 timers and 2 officials. Please see attached sheet and send in your volunteer list with Divisional entries. If there is a problem filling volunteer slots, please let us know.

There will be a 15 minute warm-up after Event 38.

Shirts: Divisional shirts will be available at the meet. This year's shirt is a short-sleeve, white 100% cotton tee and will feature front and back, multi-color original artwork.
